this field cannot be overstated.

More than 300,000 fractures of the extremitles occur every year in the United States. With modern the extremilles occur every year in the United States. With modern means of Lunaportation particularly the amazing increase in automobile use accidents are liable to occur at any time. If everyone were familiar with the dangers of wrong handling of damaged persons certain complications and perhaps a permanent deformilles might be escaped.

If the fracture is a complete one with displacement of part of the bone, it will be seen how improper handling will lead to further and unnegreesary damage. It will in crease the irritation at the heaves and other tissues. A compound fracture is one in which a portion of the broken bane projects through the with. Such an injury may result in a serious infection possibly telunus or leek jaw. To guard against the dument if it is available telanu, this toxin should be given. This might be the rule indeed in all street recidents where the skin is broken. Before moving an injured it roon it is well to determine first whether a bone is broken. If there has been a fracture the pations must be handled in an amount to at the result of the street whether a bone is broken. SENIORS AT AGOSTA The senior class of the tgosta

MRS. ALTON P. DONNER.

"I was raised to believe that medicine made from roots and herbs was the safest and best for both young and hid, especially in the spring of the year, so that was why I began taking Vendol, says Mrs. Allon P. Bonner of 252 E. Second Ave., Columbus, Ohio, "When I began taking Vendol, I was bothered by indigestion, constipation, and dizzy spells. Food would seem to lie in my stomach and sour, ferment and sometimes result in younting spells. My howels were very sluggish and it was but seldom that I could get a naturally thorough movement. I was but seldon that I could get a naturally thorough movement. I had a had taste in my mouth all the time, tongue was conted, complexion looked dult and middy with little pumples breaking out and I lost my appetite.

"Vendol gave marvelous reine from the constipation, then the other troubles just vanished. Now I can bearty meak but never suffer from gas, sourness, or nanaen, never feel dizzy, tongue has cleaned pand my complexion looks fresh, with not a nimple to be seen. I my gad I look this splendid rout and harb medicine and advise and herb medicine and advise others to give it a trial."
